How to use this workbook

What is in this book

All 46 basic hiragana and 46 basic katakana, plus the 25 voiced sounds of each (with dakuten and handakuten marks), with a chart, one practice row per character and four quizzes with answers.

How to practise

- The first box in each row shows the model character and its romaji.
- Trace the three light grey characters, then fill the empty boxes on your own.
- The dashed lines help you place each stroke. Keep the character in the middle of the box.
- Say the sound out loud each time you write it.

About stroke order

Stroke order is not printed in this book. Please check it in your textbook or with your teacher. The model characters use a textbook-style typeface; some characters such as き, さ and り are often handwritten with the strokes joined or separated slightly differently. Both are fine.

Quizzes

- Quizzes 1 and 3: write the kana for each romaji.
- Quizzes 2 and 4: write the romaji for each kana.

Romaji in this book uses the Hepburn system (shi, chi, tsu, fu).
